

112 Corlette Street Cooks Hill NSW

4 3 2

A modern residential property positioned on its own land holding is offered in the heart of the inner city. Enjoying the individual freedoms that Torrens Title affords plus the flexibility to control your own home. Security is a comfort and so automatic garage doors, security intercom at the front gate plus an internal security system are installed. And internal comfort can be controlled in the form of ducted air conditioning that is zoned.

Internal living spaces enjoy 9' ceilings and engineered timber floor of the highest quality. An open plan environment extends to the inner outdoor area. Bring the outdoors in with triple sliding doors that stack and allow both living spaces to co-exist.

A genuine chefs kitchen is enhanced with an abundance of draws and cupboards, Miele appliances and plumbed
